FOOTBALL BLOCKS AND NUMERALS AWARDED; MANY RECEIVE THIS REWARD OF MERIT

Block "C's" Given to Many Members of Varsity Squad.
Coach Asks Student Aid

Recently the corps of cadets assembled in the chapel at the request of Director of Athletics Gee for the purpose of seeing the awarding of the blocks and numerals to those men who had been deemed worthy to wear them.

The "Cubs" were presented with their numerals first. As the names were called the men went up on the rostrum and received the sweaters with "1931" sewed hard and fast on them. As each man received his sweater there was a generous applause. The freshmen put on the sweaters and took seats on the rostrum. The following "rats" received numerals: Cohen, Hallman, Harvley, Kelly, Pickens, Thames, Fordham, Gresham, Griffin, Harvin, Huskey, Morris, Orr, Patterson, Welch, Caldwell, Fleming, McKown, Newsome, Sharpe, and (last but not least by any means) Wall.

When the Coach called the varsity men forth to present them with their sweaters with the large Block "C" on them, two of the men did not don their sweaters, in fact, there did not seem to be any sweaters for them. Coach Gee, noting the bewildered expression on the faces of the cadets, laughingly explained that this year the council was allowing any man who had received a sweater before to have his sweater awarded to his "best girl", if the man would give the council the measurements. Magill and Pressley seemed to have taken advantage of this opportunity. These are the men who were awarded the blocks: Pressley (captain), Guy Davis, Gunnels, Gassaway, Gunnels, Swofford, Magill, Collins, Asbill, Mouldous, Jones, Padgett, Salley, Bob McCarley, Hane, Pitts, Mulherin, St. Claire Davis, Justus, R. McMillan, C. McMillan, Woodruff, Hall and J. R. McComb, manager.

After awarding the honors Director Gee addressed the Corps, giving an account of the athletics in which the cadets have a chance to participate. Through Mutt's efforts every cadet at Clemson now has a chance to play a part in some game on some team. At Clemson now there are football, basketball (baseball, boxing, swimming, tennis, track and rifle teams. Coach Gee made a plea for more material. He urged that every cadet come out and try for some team, and stated that he was certain that some of the best men were not out for the teams, and were not taking any part in any branch of athletics.

In his talk Coach Gee brought up the point that Clemson now has athletic equipment of which it may be proud. He offered to put the athletic equipment of the college up against the equipment of any of the largest schools in the United States, and guaranteed that Clemson's equipment would rank along with theirs. The Coach asked the cooperation of all the students in keeping the equipment from being destroyed or lost.

FAMED MUSICIANS TO PRESENT OFFERINGS

Schubert Male Quartet to Present
Many Selections From Schubert in Chapel
Thursday Night

On Thursday evening, February 7, at seven o'clock, in the College Chapel, the cadets will have their second lyceum attraction this year. The famous Schubert male quartet is to present a program of highest artistic attainment featuring a series of vivid musical pictures from the life and works of the great composer, Franz Schubert.

The Schubert quartet was organized in 1926, following an All-Canadian tour with "Three Little Maids", produced by Captain Plunkett, Canada's foremost play-wright. Mr. Miner has been in charge since the group was organized.

These singers are making their third annual coast-to-coast tour of the United States and are without doubt one of the most popular singing groups before the public.

The quartet consists of Mr. Geo. O. Miner, basso and director; Mr. Harry Dillon, lyric tenor; Mr. Chas. Pottier, baritone; Mr. Edwin Dillon, dramatic tenor and violinist, and Miss Aileen Russell, a delightful pianiste.

This is the first time a lyceum entertainment has been given in the middle of the week. The corps is glad to have this program presented to them at that time of the week, because many cadets miss the best attractions of the season by going home on the week-end. It would be excellent if all future programs could be given during the week as the attendance would be much larger at that time. The entire cadet corps is looking forward to Thursday evening.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE AROUND RIGGS HALL

Cooling Pond Built and Steps Placed on Terraces

For the past two weeks there has been some work under way which, when completed, will add considerably to the appearance of our Engineering building. Three pairs of steps have been built leading up to the terrace surrounding the building. One pair on the North side approaching the main entrance, and two on the West side at the entrances enhance the already beautiful building.

In addition, a fountain is being built in the courtyard between the wings of the building. This fountain is to serve the important part of being a cooler for the exhaust water from the steam laboratory as well as to make the yard more attractive. A concrete walk will lead from the door of the engineering hall and encircle the fountain.

Plans are being made for the construction of a lagoon on the North side of the hall, and the general improvement of the surrounding grounds.

RESULTS OF COMPETITION ANNOUNCED

In the architectural competition held lately the following results have been announced:

Seniors—"A Summer School for the Fine Arts". Placed first, D. B. Sherman. Placed second, J. M. Caghaman and J. E. Ferguson, (tie). Juniors—"A Private Library". Placed first, S. B. Earle, Jr., and H. E. Woodward (tie).

Sophomores—"A Monumental Doorway". Placed first, J. P. Wilson, L. M. Wolfe, H. A. Ripplmeyer and W. W. King (ties).

SOPHS PLAN RECORD HOP FOR FRIDAY NITE

Dance List Swells, and Many More Expected

Friday is the night of the big shag. The Sophomore Hop. Plans for this great social event have gone forward rapidly and now one of the greatest dances of the year is anticipated by the second-year men. Although Fate has been unkind to the sponsors of this dance previously this year, the club has not become discouraged. They are determined to give the cadets one of if not the best dance of the year. From present indications, it is evident that they will not fail in their large undertaking.

Rudy Brown and his music dispensers from Atlanta will have entire charge of the rhythmic end of the affair. This orchestra is already well known in Tigertown. A very talented Asthetic dancer from Greenville has been persuaded to add an extra touch of entertainment to the affair. This young lady promises to show plenty of skill in the art of tripping on fantastic toes.

From the present dance list, which is in room 175, it is evident that the largest crowd of girls to attend a dance at Clemson this year will be up Friday. Tickets may be bought in room 516. Pay up early and avoid the rush.

SCULPTURED FIGURES EXHIBITED HERE AT Y

A small sculpture exhibit with white soap used as a medium, sponsored by the Woman's Club of Clemson College, will be held in the Y. M. C. A. on next Monday afternoon. Mrs. R. W. Johnson, president of the Woman's Club will be in charge of this exhibition. This exhibit consists of about 100 pieces of sculpture selected from the four thousand pieces entered in the Fourth Annual Competition for the Proctor and Gamble prize, which were recently exhibited at the Anderson Galleries, New York City. Included in this exhibition will be sculptures entered by professionals and amateurs, both adult and child, throughout the United States. There are several prize winning pieces in the group.

These sculptures will be shown February 11 at the Y. M. C. A. from 3 to 6 P. M. The Cadets and members of the campus are cordially invited to attend.

TAPS STAFF SELECTED FOR COMING YEAR; NEW MEMBERS TO GAIN NEEDED EXPERIENCE

TIGER BROTHERHOOD INITIATES NEW MEN

Organization Has as Its Purpose
Promotion of Gentlemanliness at Clemson

The Tiger Brotherhood initiated seventy-five members, both students and faculty, at a meeting held in chapel last Thursday night. These men were chosen under a very rigid system, having been passed on by every member of the Brotherhood before being accepted into the organization. The factors considered in choosing these men were their character and their loyalty to Clemson.

To many the object of the Tiger Brotherhood is not known. This organization is one which sponsors the advancement of gentlemanliness at Clemson. It is a club of men who believe in Clemson and in Clemson men, holding that the honor of a Clemson man is his first consideration. Its members have adopted a code whereby they hold themselves "individually and collectively" responsible for the perpetuation of the principles of the Brotherhood.

It would seem that such an organization would be of great value. (Continued on page 5)

FACULTY MEMBERS FORM BIOLOGY CLUB

Members of Biology Faculty
Form Club to Promote Interest in Practical Science

A Biology Club composed of members of the faculty has been organized to promote interest in all phases of practical science. The first officers for this progressive group are: Prof. R. A. McGinty, chief horticulturist, as president; L. V. Starkey, chief of the animal husbandry division, as vice president; and Prof. D. E. Rosenkranz of the botany division as secretary-treasurer.

Prof. Starkey the principal speaker at the first meeting gave an excellent talk on the subject of nutrition. This was followed by an informal discussion led by Dr. George M. Armstrong, chief botanist and plant pathologist, who emphasized vitamins, mineral elements, iodine, and other phases of nutrition. A splendid dinner after the discussion proved a delightful climax to the first meeting.

The club plans to meet the second and fourth Tuesday of every month. At the first meeting of every month general matters of biology are to be discussed while at the second meeting the speaker will develop subjects along the line of the fundamental principles of biology. Professors Sherman and Aull will be in charge at the next meeting. The subject of Genetics is to be discussed during the February 26th meeting. This club should be of untold technical and material value to all the members who take an active part.

M. B. Ware and F. Y. Mercer to Handle 1930 Taps, with Capable Staff of Assistants

The Junior class met last Thursday night for the purpose of electing the Taps staff for the year 1929-30. This election usually takes place later on in the year, but it has been decided that if the officers were elected earlier, they would have time to acquaint themselves with their duties for the next year. This will be a great advantage to the new officers, because heretofore they have had to take over their responsibilities with very little knowledge as to their duties on the work before them.

At the meeting Thursday night, two Juniors were nominated for each office. Tuesday of this week there was an election to determine which of these nominees would be elected. This election was by ballot. Those who were elected and their respective offices are as follows:

Editor-in-chief—M. P. Ware.
Associate Editor—B. L. Hewett.
Business Manager—F. Y. Mercer.
Business Manager—F. Y. Mercer.
Assistant Business Manager—F. B. Farr.
Art Editors—H. E. Woodward; S. B. Earl.
Advertising Editor—R. N. Smith.
Athletic Editor—S. W. L. Thompson.
Clubs and Classes Editor—W. W. Hane.
Satire Editor—H. R. Sherrard.
Military Editor—H. W. Asbill.

The men elected are all very competent, and their fellow students are expecting great things from them.

The boys are behind you, fellows, and they are confident that the Taps for 1929-30 will equal, if not surpass, those which have preceded it.

PRELIMINARY INSPECTION TO BE HELD SOON

On the evening of February 28th Major Duvall, R. O. T. C. officer of the Fourth Corps Area, will arrive at Clemson College to make an inspection of the Unit. This inspection, which is to be on March 7th, will determine whether or not Clemson College will be inspected for the Distinguished Military College List. Should the inspection prove successful, there will be a final inspection in the spring to decide whether or not Clemson will remain a Distinguished Military College.

Last year the Clemson College unit was inspected by Major Maloney of the Fourth Corps Area. Although the corps had just returned from a happy vacation, this officer commented favorably on the general bearing and efficiency of the cadets. The inspection was very successful indeed. Besides remaining a Distinguished Military College, Clemson had the honor of selecting from its Senior class several members as honor graduates.

EDITORIAL

With this issue of the Tiger the new staff takes charge of the paper. It is with no little trepidation that we assume the responsibilities of this most important work. Our anxiety to make a credible showing is increased by the fact that our predecessors in office have done such notable work, and we clearly recognize that it will not be easy by any means to maintain the high standard which they have set. All of the outgoing members of the staff deserve high praise, not only for the character of their work, but also for the fine spirit of loyalty to the best interests of the paper and their devotion to duty. We salute them, and confidently predict for the future, outside the college walls, a record equally as commendable.

The Editorial staff of our journal owes a duty to the entire student body. That duty is to properly represent them both in the character of the work done and in reflecting their spirit and aims. With as large a body of young men as we have at Clemson, and with as high a morale as exhibited by these men, truly representative of the best type of South Carolina's future citizens, this is a tremendous task, and we confess to a sense of inadequacy as we undertake it. We shall be anxious to make the paper worthy of such an institution and such a student body. This is the ideal we have set before us, and we ask the sympathetic interest and help, where help is possible, in realizing our ambition. We invite suggestions and criticism of the constructive sort from faculty and students. We should like much to see our entire college community enthusiastically behind the paper all the time. It seems to us that in that way alone can we begin to hope to insure it the place in the life of our institution that it should occupy.

In making our bow to our constituency we seek from them their most cordial interest and good will. We wish also to acknowledge our obligations to the out-going staff, not only for their kind words about their successors, but especially for the real service they have rendered us in showing the way. They succeeded in marked degree in putting the Tiger spirit into the columns of the paper, and we shall honestly endeavor to continue their policies, and to perpetuate their aims during our incumbency.

WILL UNIFORM BE CHANGED NEXT YEAR?

Probabilities Show That Cadets Will Wear Different Uniform in Future

Kid rumor broke out of his hiding place again this week and succeeded in standing the three lower classes on their heads about a change in uniform for next year. So far it has not been definitely decided as to when or what change will be made in the Clemson uniforms.

It is known that beginning in 1931 the R. O. T. C. colleges cannot use the O. D. uniform, and that they must have some kind of distinctive tailor-made uniform of some color other than kaiki and O. D., to get government commutation and still remain on the R. O. T. C. payroll. Another recourse is to accept a uniform much like the C. M. T. C. uniforms from the government free of charge, as it is handed to the cadet.

The authorities have stated that the cadets may rest assured that no unnecessary hardships will be shifted to their shoulders, and when a definite change is decided upon the corps will be notified immediately.

Do you think that eating in a boarding house has any effect on a person?

Of course! The effect is far reaching.

Hotel Clerk—You registered as Mr. and Mrs. Murphy. Where is Mrs. Murphy?

Guest (a plumber)—Cripes, I forgot to bring her!

Bo Gee Bannister—To avoid being an old maid, would you marry a fool?

Helen—Why - er - this is so sudden!

VESPER SERVICE

One of the largest audiences ever gathered in the "Y" auditorium for a religious service gathered there Sunday night for Vesper Service. An especially interesting program was given, music being furnished by several members of the college band. The speaker of the evening was Mr. Cooper, Assistant Secretary of the YMCA. Mr. Cooper's subject was "The Significance of a Vision." "A vision," says Mr. Cooper, "is a dream." Some of the things that a vision does are as follows: (1) It gives to man life and purpose to the otherwise dead self; (2) It arouses to action those who are mute; (3) It adds to one's happiness and success; (4) It challenges one to the best as nothing else can do; and, (5) It reveals what one can do best.

In his talk Mr. Cooper said that in order to succeed in life one had certain ranges of mountains to cross. He gave as examples of men who had crossed ranges in their lives the following list:

Eli Whitney ---- The Cotton Gin
Robert Fulton ---- The Steamboat
Samuel Morse ---- The Telegraph
Thomas Edison ---- The Phonograph
Just before concluding his talk Mr. Cooper made the statement that the greatest event in any life is having Christ enter into it.

VOLUNTARY BIBLE STUDY FOR ALL CLASSES

Bible Study Committee Meets

M. B. Stevenson, Chairman of the Bible Study Committee, and the members of his committee—Byron, McLaurin, and Clayton—met on the afternoon of the 27th and mapped out an outline for the semester's work. Messrs. Vaughan and Holtzendorf had previously spoken to Dr. Sikes with reference to the hour for the classes to meet, etc.

The following outline was discussed at the meeting of the cabinet last Monday night and was approved by all of the members:

Topic for Study—Meaning of Faith
Feb. 5 ----- Enrollment
Feb. 12 ----- Supper at "Y" from seven to eight for all teachers and assistant teachers. Meeting of all classes from eight to nine for the purpose of organizing the groups and outlining the lessons.
Feb. 19 ----- Lesson 1.
Feb. 26 ----- Lesson 2.
March, 5 ----- Lesson 3.
March 12 ----- Lesson 10.
March 19 ----- Lesson 11.
March 26 ----- Lesson 12.
March 28 ----- Meeting of all classes in YMCA auditorium from 6:40 to 7:40 for program and refreshments.

JAPANESE LEADERS UNITE FOR TOKYO BUILDING

Tokyo, Japan, is to have an Association building which will be the result of the combined effort of many of the country's most prominent citizens. Ground has already been broken for it in a ceremony performed by Count Goto, former minister of State, and Fletcher S. Brockman, beloved administrative secretary for the Far East for thirty years. The cornerstone laying will be held in April.

Baron Sakatani, former minister of finance, president of the Patron's Association of the Tokyo Reconstruction Building Fund Campaign, in a speech at a ground breaking, stressed the fact that the Japanese in large measure look to the Association to raise up men able to meet the economic, social and international demands of the new day.

Among the other patrons are Prince I. Tokogawa, president of the House of Peers; Baron K. Morimura, president of the Morimura Bank, and Mr. U. Yoneyama, president of the Mitsui Trust Company.

Japanese statesmen and educators, alarmed by the prevalence of radical ideas among Japanese Youth, are urgent in their requests that the Y. M. C. A. shall enlarge its program of activity. Schools whose doors were formerly shut to the Association now invite "Y" secretaries to address their students.

"HERE'S LUCK—MAY THE BEST MAN WIN"

European YMCA Members Taking Increasing Interest in Athletic Competition

The Young Men's Christian Association has been a great factor in increasing good will between different countries through athletic competition conducted for the members of the Association.

This has been particularly true in Europe, where this sort of competition has had a great impetus in recent years. In many cases it has been claimed that provincial jealousies and even racial hatred have been overcome due to the fact that these petty misunderstandings and prejudices gave way to better understandings and appreciation of each other as the young men and boys come to know each other better through clean athletic competition. The same was true when the Americans were invited to attend the world YMCA athletic championships held at Copenhagen, Denmark.

VITAL RELIGION TO WIN YOUTH OF TODAY

Old Ways Are Doomed If Church Would Appeal to Modern Young Folks

Churches, bound by the conventions of the last nineteen centuries, need not look for a return to their pews of the so-called "flaming youth", according to Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick.

The younger generation has broken away from the established churches and will return to a Christian life only under the right leadership, which will result in a manner of life that "will put conventionalized Christianity to shame," he said.

While he feels they will never return to "conventional Christianity", he does not give them up. He believes that young people are not so much interested in the Jesus of history as they are in the Christ of experience.

"We try to keep Jesus back in history; he will not stay there. He comes walking out of history. He leaves Bethlehem behind him. He shakes off the dust of Nazareth from his sandals and comes to our lives in modern America," saying, "I reveal something universal; it is in you; flickering and dim it may be, but for all that it is personality. Life never comes to its crown until it achieves these personalities; you can not keep me back in history."

"Christianity is Christ, and to love Him until His spirit is reproduced in us and passes from being simply the Jesus of history to being the Christ of experience is to be a Christian."

CAMPUS NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Earle were hosts at a delightful card party on Wednesday evening. The rooms, thrown in suite, were lovely in decorations of spring flowers. Bridge was enjoyed until a late hour when Mrs. Earle served delicious refreshments.

The Exchange, which is just to the rear of the Calhoun mansion, invites everyone to come to the building regularly. The Exchange is open to the public every Friday afternoon. Last Friday afternoon the ladies who called enjoyed a lesson in candy making by Mrs. P. B. Holtzendorf. Other lessons will be given free, and delicious cakes, pies, jellies, etc. are on sale.

The Methodist Missionary Society held its regular monthly meeting at the Methodist church on Monday afternoon. The Presbyterian Auxiliary met with Mrs. J. H. McHugh. The Episcopal Auxiliary met with Mrs. C. C. Newman. The Baptist Society met with Mrs. Dan Lewis. The Wednesday Morning Bridge Club met this week with Mrs. Clink scales.

Mrs. Ralph Ramseur was hostess to the members of the book circle on Wednesday afternoon.

The Foreign Mission Study class of the Presbyterian Auxiliary met with Mrs. R. K. Eaton on Thursday afternoon of last week with Mrs. A. G. Shanklin on Friday afternoon, and on Saturday afternoon with Mrs. P. B. Holtzendorf.

A lovely social affair of the week will be the silver tea given by the School Improvement Association on Thursday afternoon at the house of Mrs. E. W. Sikes.

Miss Martha Lomas, of Graycourt, and Miss Gladys Wiggins, of Mullins, spent the week end with Mrs. Dan Lewis.

Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Moore are spending this week in Charleston.

That'll Do
Mother (scolding child for making faces)—Just suppose your face should freeze that way. Then you'd be a terrible sight.

INCORPSES INSURANCE

"Life Insurance is a sure investment and forms a systematic savings account for the young man"—E. W. Sikes

"There is no argument against Life Insurance"—Calvin Coolidge.

Life Insurance helps the young man in business and creates a solace in time of trouble. It is the best means of creating an estate. Life Insurance allows the old man to retire and enjoy the pleasures of life in his last days.

We offer special young men's policies to college men on a basis that cannot be surpassed. Such men as Wray, Sudlow, Alexander, Cox, Jordan, Trimmier and many others of the Class of '26 are now satisfied policy holders. Yarborough, Sutherland, Phillips, Askins, Earle, Ross, Haydin and numerous others of the class of '27 are now enrolled with us. A partial list of the policy holders in the class of '28 is given here: Jordan, Boseman, Davis, the Turner brothers, McPhail, Epting, O'Dell, Britt, Campbell, Reynolds, Wray, Burgess, Pursley, Marchbanks, Williams, Barton, Cuttino, Parker, Hutchins, Gillespie, Ridgeway, Moore, Durst, Vaughn, Smith, Pressley, Farmer, Hair, Stopplebein, Martin, Anderson, Pursley. The above list should be sufficient evidence of the great value of our company and our students' low rate policies. Our company has been a favorite among Clemson men for many years. Clemson alumni have been representing us for many years in South Carolina. If you can qualify, we will enroll you.

Palbearers

"How's this," asked the lawyer, "you've named six merchants in your will to be palbearers. Wouldn't you rather choose some of your friends with whom you are on better terms?"

"No, judge, that's all right. Those fellows have carried me so long that they might as well finish the job."

Interviewer—Did any of your ancestors receive any great honors?

George Durst—Yes I was named after my great grandfather.

Squeezer—If you really loved me all the time, why didn't you let me know?

Foggy—I couldn't find a postcard with the right words on it.

"Half the City Council are Crooks" was the glaring headlines. A retraction in full was demanded of the editor under penalty of arrest. Next afternoon the headlines read: "Half the City Council Aren't Crooks".

Montieth's Latest Sign

Gentlemen Do Not Lick the Syrup Pitcher. My Patrons are Requested to Do Likewise.

For Sale—Brass Beds; Bed Springs; Mattresses and other musical instruments.

Apology Pending

The ladies of the Helping Hand Society enjoyed a swap social on Friday evening. Everybody brought something they didn't need. Many of the ladies were accompanied by their husbands.

Better'n That

Tourist—I've been places and seen things.

Liquored Actor—Hell, that's nothing. I've been things and seen places.—Buccaneer.

Old Lady (to little boy in puddle)—Get out of that water immediately.

Little Boy—Aw, find one for yourself.

Clever!

"Shorry to wake you, doctor, ol' boy, but there's a window open in your house."

"Which one?"

"The one you're lookin' out of, goo' night."

Goody! Goody!

"That is a skyscraper," announced the guide.

Old lady—"Oh my! I'd love to see it work."

Television!

A venerable old Scot purchased a little radio set. A few days later his friends asked him how he liked the set.

"Well, it's aw richt to listen to," he replied, "but those bulbs are not so guld to read by."

Disgusted lover—She said she had hidden charms, but I don't know where she hid them.

A Chip off the Old Block

First Barber—Nasty cut you've given the old gent, Bill."

Second Barber—"Yes, I'm courtin' his 'ousemaid—that's to let 'er know I can see 'er Tuesday night!"

Aviator—Wanna fly?

Young Thing—O-O-o-oh!, yeth!

Aviator—Wait. I'll catch one for you.

Pop—As I passed the parlor door last evening, I saw my daughter sitting on your lap; have you any explanation?

Him—Yes, sir: I got here before any of the others.

Why is the milk here blue?

Because it comes from discontented cows.

Himself—May I hold your hand?

Herself—It isn't heavy; I can manage, thank you.

A sailor may have a girl in every port, but a college man has a girl on every davenport.

That girl you picked up at the dance the other night was from Ireland, wasn't she?

Ireland! You mean Iceland!

I think she's very attractive physically; how is she mentally.

Can't say — never met her mentally.

What makes you twitch so?

I jus' been to a flea circus, and I guess I must'a' run away wit' th' leadin' lady.

A Warning

"Hey, Mike," said a workman to the other atop, "don't come down on the ladder on the north corner—I took it away."

What did you get on the quiz?

Zero, but that's nothing for me.

Infant—Baby wants a new pair of shoes.

Mother—Oh, baby does, does she? Well baby, better come across with some bright sayings that'll sell, or baby'll go barefoot.

Sorry Reader!

There hasn't been much stirring around our house lately.

Why not?

Somebody stole the spoons.

Little Necks in Season

In the spring a man is very apt to neck his secretary; And when birdies tweet and call so He may neck his partner's also.

The Present Generation

Father (scolding daughter) — Shame on you. Smoking cigarettes and not giving your grandmother a light first.

Oops!

Slightly Inebriated (to girl on Broadway)—Do you ever speak to strangers on the street?

Sweet Little Dove—Oh! No!

S. I.—Well, then shut up.

So Careless of Her

Landlady (knocking at the bedroom door)—Eight o'clock! Eight o'clock! Frosh (sleepily)—Did you? Better call a doctor.

Minister—I pronounce you man and wife—the ring, please.

Magician (reaching in his pocket and pulling out a rabbit)—Gosh, the wrong act!

That girl is rather fast.

What makes you think so?

She covered five laps last night.

CLUBS AND SOCIETIES

The local Iota chapter of Phi Psi, national textile fraternity, pledged several new men at their meeting last Wednesday evening. These men, J. C. Attaway, O. F. Funderburk, J. M. McLeod, and I. S. Pitts, were given the first degree initiation last Friday night. What mysterious tortures were inflicted upon them will never be known outside of the fraternal circle. Two more ordeals, the second and third degree, await them before they emerge as full fledged members. Their period of servility is evidenced by the conspicuous wearing of sluttles.

Of widespread interest is the National Phi Psi convention to be held in Charlotte this spring. At this convention the Iota chapter of Clemson, the Eta chapter of N. C. State, and the Theta chapter of Georgia Tech, will act as joint hosts to the Phi Psi chapters throughout the country.

The A. S. C. E. held its first meeting of the second semester last Monday evening. An interesting program was rendered to an assembly of about twenty men, including both students and professors. Cadet W. P. Tiecken gave a very interesting resume of the work he was connected with during the past summer. He presented many pictures and graphs which amply illustrated his talk. His main subject was: "The Contractor's Method of Paving".

The regular business of the society was discussed following this talk. One feature of special interest to all members was the discussion of the annual banquet, which is held on St. Patrick's Day.

The program was concluded by Cadet C. T. Wise. He gave the details of two engineering motion picture reels, showing the construction of some of the world's largest tunnels, emphasizing the time saving methods employed in the construction of these tunnels as contrasted with those of former times.

The Palmetto Literary Society held its regular meeting last Thursday night in the Palmetto Literary Society hall.

The program was opened by Mr. W. W. Fridy, who delivered a very interesting and educational essay on "The Progress of Science". Then came one of the most humorous debates heard here in a long time. It was an impromptu affair from alpha to omega, even including the query. The inexorable fate decreed that Mr. J. E. Webb and Mr. C. P. Hogarth should uphold the affirmative while Mr. F. E. Hinson and Mr. H. A. Clayton should represent the negative. After a brief consultation they discreetly selected the magnanimous subject: "Resolved, that a mule is more useful than a cow." The farcical exhibitions of wit and eloquence shown in the barrages of oratory drew rounds of laughter and applause. Climaxing the program were the jokes and monologue by Mr. O. H. McDaniel, and Mr. J. O. Rowell's impromptu on "Some Literary Facts."

The Horticultural Society met Monday night to discuss plans for future meetings. It was decided that from now on the programs will be rendered by the students alone. F. H. Duffie, H. C. Parham, and R. W. Sanders will make reports on recent Horticultural investigation at the next meeting.

Prof. McGinty and Prof. Musser discussed the possibilities of putting on the Horticultural show next year.

The members also discussed plans for a banquet, and decided to have one in the near future.

MINISTER TO LEAVE FOR RICHMOND CHARGE

Cadets Regret to See Rev. Bryant Depart

The cadet corps is indeed sorry to learn that Rev. Wade H. Bryant has accepted a call to the Barton Heights Baptist church of Richmond, Va.. The campus church will feel the loss deeply because Rev. Bryant has proven the vital factor in its unending progress during his time here. Each and every cadet has learned to look up to him as one of the finest examples of upright, generous manhood.

Rev. Bryant is a graduate of the Clemson class of 1918, having graduated in electrical engineering. He spent a few years with the Westinghouse Electrical Company both in Pittsburg and Atlanta. Soon afterward he felt the call to the ministry and studied four years at the Southern Baptist Seminary at Louisville, acting as pastor at the Highland Park Church during that time.

The Barton Heights Church is in the residential section of Richmond and has a lively active membership of nearly 1200 people. It is one of the leading churches in Virginia from the standpoint of its contributions to missions.

During Rev. Bryant's student years at Clemson he formed a Bible class in barracks and fought for it thru the periods of uninterest until he soon had a large, interested, successful class once a week. His Bible hours here will always stand in his record as the culmination of undying determination to help the cadets. An honor is his which few men achieve because others give up, striking the first stumbling block, while he was determined to carry on regardless of all adverse criticism, and soon he had the sincere respect of the entire corps.

The cadets take this opportunity to wish Rev. Bryant a glorious, happy success in his new environment and express their deep regret that he must leave the campus so soon. He will be missed by the Baptist students more than by any others, because they have become so closely attached to him. It will be extremely difficult to find a man who can fill this place as ably as he has filled it.

CHAPEL SPEAKER

Instead of the usual drill last Monday of the Cadet Corps assembled in chapel to hear George D. Levy, State Commander of the American Legion. The speaker was briefly introduced by Professor Robert K. Eaton, Commander of the Clemson College post of the American Legion. Mr. Levy gave a very interesting speech on the good being done by the American Legion. In the course of his speech he gave some interesting accounts of the National Convention held last summer at San Antonio, Texas. Mr. Levy stated that the membership of the Legion was the largest the past year that it has been since 1921.

Mr. Levy, an old Clemson man, spoke of the many changes that have taken place at Clemson in recent years.

With Mr. Levy at Clemson was Judge Bailey of Anderson, who is the representative for the third district of the American Legion.

gation would be of too idealistic a nature for practical operation. On the contrary this is not the case, as the members of the Brotherhood are not expected to be perfect. Their aim is to be as fair and straight acting as is in their power to be, and at all times to stick squarely behind Clemson. Not being a social organization, the club depends upon the individual to exert his influence in bringing about the desired results. The motto of the club is, "One for all, all for one, and all for Clemson."

In time it is hoped that the majority of the faculty and students of Clemson may be taken into the group. It is hoped that in this way a fine spirit of school patriotism will be developed, and that the honor of a Clemson man will be equal to that of any other college man.

Changing Horses

AT the portals of our large cities—New York, Baltimore, Detroit, and soon Cleveland—a semaphore halts a luxurious flyer drawn by a puffing steam engine. A simple switching maneuver, and electricity takes charge. A giant electric locomotive, quickly under way, glides silently into the home stretch with its long string of Pullmans.

Like a thoroughbred it makes the run—tirelessly. Passengers alight in a clean terminal—clean because there is no smoke or soot.

Another milestone in transportation—another event in the life of the iron horse!

Civilization is progressing, with electricity in the van. How far this advance will take us, is a problem for our future leaders. It is for them to develop and utilize new applications of electricity—the force that is pointing the way over uncharted courses, not only in railroading, but in every phase of progress.

The G-E monogram is found on large electric locomotives and on MAZDA lamps, electric vacuum cleaners, and a multitude of other appliances which serve us all. It is the mark of an organization that is dedicated to the cause of electrical progress.

BY MITCHELL

Station FSR now broadcasting a variety program from the Hotel CAC. If you dislike our program; telegraph us. If it pleases you then acknowledgements should be in the form of sweetmeats and the like—and THAT'S THAT.

For the benefit of those that did not see the Clemson-Auburn game last Friday evening, and those who fail to recognize a championship team when they see one in action—Let me put you wise to something—the Clemson College basketball squad will be right there when the Southern Conference basketball tournament rolls around—and they will still be there when the tournament ends unless my eyes have gone on a permanent strike—and they serve me rather well at present.

Lest you have forgotten, Auburn was runnerup for the championship last year. Clemson completely eclipsed them the other night. Towards the later portion of the game Coach Cody sent in "Light Horse Harry Lee of Landrum" and his squad of Bohunks, the last of the reserves. These boys, the punching bag of the varsity five, made quite a credible showing against the Auburn team. Keep it up, Bohunks, 'School ain't out yet'.

Just after this paper leaves the press the cadets corps will have the opportunity of seeing two of the fastest boxing teams below the Mason-Dixon hook up. Or in just plain words the University of Florida's Boxers open the season here Wednesday night. We make no predictions as to the outcome. Boxing is young at Clemson and Florida has a veteran squad of Leather-pushers. See it for yourself.

The Spring football practice seems to be running off smoothly out on Bowman field these nice, cool afternoons—and take it from me they certainly look good. But it's too early to predict anything yet.

We wonder if the weather isn't mighty chilly for the Baseball team to be taking such strenuous exercises with their valuable arms. Right now the SNOW is whipping down on the Clemson campus, and yet this afternoon the pitchers were tossing the old horsehide as if it were mid-summer. Well, the coaches know they are doing—at least, we hope they do.

In a few days a vote is to be taken from the corps as to who shall receive the Newman trophy. This trophy is to be given to that football player showing the most improvement during the season just passed. The cadet corps is to be the sole judge as to which man shall receive the trophy. In the past too little has been taken in the casting of such ballots. There is too much and too many groups of individuals that try to run things to suit themselves—and sad to say there is even present that type who lets someone do his thinking. Those cadets that fail to cast their ballots for the man that they think deserves the trophy and those that fail to cast a ballot are traitors to Clemson and every one else concerned. If this hits any of you, then HOWL, but be sure to do the right thing hereafter and there will be no reason for howling.

Hoping that the Java hasn't cooled and that the druggists still have a good supply of candies and Beechnut gum.

TIGER PUGS READY FOR TILT WITH GATORSS

The leather-pushers of Mr. Joe Guyon and Company, are impatiently waiting for tonight to come, when their first victims, the Florida Gators appear on the scene. All the pent-up fury that they had been reserving for North Carolina and P. C. will be unleashed against Florida. Guyon's boys have been disappointed twice, and are in a ferocious frame of mind. They don't mean to do anybody any good. Some of the boys are even getting rough among themselves, as is shown by the number of black eyes on the campus. It's a tough break for Florida that such a feeling exists on the Calhoun hill, but it just can't be helped. The Gators will simply have to take their medicine, which will be in the form of Tiger caltrops.

So far as we know, no cauliflower ears have yet been seen around here. Don't worry though, it is not quite time for them yet. There will probably be several of them in bloom after tonight. Florida is noted for its flowers anyhow.

Everybody comes down to the Gym tonight, and watch those Guyonites give 'em hell. When the Tiger Knock-downs and Gator Drag-outs clash, there ought to be some fun.

O. D. PADGETT WINS JACOB TROPHY AWARD

Clemson Captain-elect Selected as Best Interferer in South Carolina

The Jacob's trophy cup for the best interferer in this state during the past football season was officially presented to Captain-elect O. D. Padgett of Clemson last Friday in Clinton. With O. D. at a Rotary club luncheon given in his honor, were Bob McCarley, who was third highest scorer, Coaches Josh Cody and Joe Guyon. Several sports officials were present.

The special program included speeches by Cody, Laval, and Scoop Latimer. Each of these spoke mainly of South Carolina football and the benefit to be derived from the annual awarding of the Jacob's trophy cup and medal.

The feature of the program was the speech and presentation by Mr. Jacobs. He stated that the idea of his award was prompted by the neglect of the man who opened up holes for the ball carrier. He considered that the man who sacrificed himself for the team deserved recognition for his able interference. The primary purpose of the trophy, he continued, was to help develop manhood.

Both Josh Cody and Joe Guyon made short speeches concerning the effect the award will have on future football. Guyon explained the finer points of interference which are usually manifested only to those who know the technical side of the game.

The trophy cup is a slender silver loving cup of graceful beauty. It will remain in Padgett's possession for a year. However, he will keep the inscribed gold medal. Clemson is especially proud of O. D. His team-mates evidenced their belief in his ability by electing him captain, and the corps has been vociferous in its applause of his work last fall.

TIGER QUINTET LOSES SPECTACULAR GAME

Furman Men Give Tigers Drubbing

Josh Cody's Clemson Tigers dropped a heartbreaking game 42-33 on Saturday night to the Furman five. The Tiger basketball team contested the game stubbornly from the opening counter to the final whistle. A large crowd packed the Furman gym to thrill at the clash of the old rivals. It was a battle packed with numerous upheavals and spectacular plays. Sometimes it bordered on the free-for-all.

The first half opened when Lester sank a difficult shot to tally 2 points for Clemson. Furman retaliated. The contest see-sawed along with one team leading, then the other. Lester for Clemson, and Burts for Furman, in a scoring spree endeavored to out-do each other. Clemson's defensive, although ragged at times, functioned perfectly. The half ended with the Tigers leading 18-16.

Furman came back strong in the second half and dazzled the Tiger's defense to ring three successive goals in short order. From then on it was nip and tuck. Josh Cody's men rallied and put up a splendid attempt to overcome Furman's lead, but before they could complete this, the whistle ended the game.

Watson, Furman center, was high scorer with 18 points. Lester of Clemson looped 10 points. Others who played fine games were Woodruff, Clemson guard, and Captain Burts, of Furman.

CLEMSON DEFEATS AUBURN PLAINSMEN

Tigers Take Down Brother Tigers of the Plain

Josh Cody's cagemen swamped the famed Auburn quint last Friday night to the over-whelming tune of two score and eight figures to twenty-six units. The Clemson five hit a stride at the opening of the tilt that the Plainsmen were never able to cope with. Throughout, the game was very one-sided, and it was evident that the Tigers of the Hills would be victorious in every sense of that pleasant word. They out-classed the lowland Bengals in all phases of the game of "strawberried knees". Those finishing touches that the "big man" has been putting on the local basketballers showed very effectively in this battle of the hardwood court.

Every wearer of the Clemson colors that appeared in the fray, and these were numerous, showed himself to be "a man what had been coached". One of the biggest surprises of the evening was the brilliant work of "Hoot" Gibson, who appeared from the bench and covered the floor "like a quilt", shooting from all angles like a veteran. Seems as if Coach Cody must spring his "dark horses" now and then.

Even though the game was tucked away early, the Auburnites never ceased to fight. They rung up three counters from the field in the closing moments, after Clemson had trotted out an entirely new five.

From old kettle to new world

SOMEbody has to believe in the big possibilities of little things. James Watt saw the lid of his tea-kettle dance—and today our civilization is built largely on steam.

In the field of communication, Bell saw the possibilities of a little vibrating diaphragm. Today from the telephone at his elbow a man talks to his next-door neighbor or across the continent, just as he chooses.

Men in the telephone industry, in commercial and administrative as well as technical work, are constantly proving that little suggestions, little ideas, little changes, when smoothly fitted into the comprehensive plan, may be big in possibilities of better public service.
